

DAcCHM Program Fact Sheet

Doctor of Acupuncture with Chinese Herbal Specialization

INSTITUTIONALLY ACCREDITED BY:

Southern Association of Colleges & Schools, Commission on Colleges (SACS-COC)

PROGRAMMATICALLY ACCREDITED BY:

Accreditation Commission for Acupuncture and Herbal Medicine (ACAHM)

RECOGNIZED BY THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

Program Credits/Hours

	MAcCHM-DAcCHM	DAcCHM Completion
Didactic	182.5/2214	18/216
Clinical	48/1152	6/144
Total	230.5/3366	24/360

Paces of Study

	MAcCHM-DAcCHM	DAcCHM Completion
Accelerated	4 years & 3 months	1 year
Full-time	5 years & 3 months	1 year & 6 months
Part-time	7 years & 6 months	2 years & 6 months

Doctoral classes held
7 weeks per year

Curriculum Area:

- Acupuncture Studies
- Chinese Medicine Fundamentals
- Herbal Studies
- Practice Development
- Biomedical Studies
- Clinical Education
- Mind-Body Studies
- Asian Bodywork Therapy

Clinic Opportunities:

- AOMA Clinics
- People's Community Clinic
- Austin Outpatient Clinic - Central Texas Veterans Health Care System
- ASHWell Sexual Health Clinic

Faculty Information:

36 Total Faculty including:

- Licensed Acupuncturists (LAc)
- Chinese Faculty
- MD, ND, DC
- PhD, DAOM
- 4:1 Student to Faculty Ratio

Financial Aid Options:

- Student Loans
- VA Benefits
- Federal Work Study
- Scholarships

Program Tuition:

$348 per Credit Hour - Master's $433 per Credit Hour - Doctoral

Student Age Groups:

- 21-30: 0%
- 31-40: 42%
- 41-50: 42%
- 51-70+: 16%

Student Demographics:

- 15% Asian
- 10% African American
- 71% Caucasian
- 4% Hispanic

Enrollment:

- 32 DAcCHM Completion Track
- 90% Full-Time Students
- 10% Part-Time Students
- 92% Female
- 8% Male